

AUSTRALIAN pregnancy & birth

ECO CHILD

www.ecochild.com.au

This eco-friendly site launched in 2006 and only provides products that are natural for your wee one. It features bamboo textiles, products made without chemicals and products that are ethically made. What we especially like about the Eco Child site is their Mothercraft Nurse, who you can email for helpful advice, solutions and support with any issues you're having with bub.

EENI MEENI MIINI MOH

www.eenimeeni.com

Shopping for kids' clothes isn't always easy - especially when your kids are with you and are more interested in looking at toys than clothes! Thankfully, eeni meeni miini moh has come to the rescue with a site that features clothing for children from birth up to 12 years old. Their simple and stylish Pure Newborn range is a current office favourite.

FISHER-PRICE

www.fisher-price.com.au

Not sure what highchair you can buy from Fisher-Price? Then check out this website, which is essentially the most up-to-date catalogue of all its products. The range is brightly coloured and fun, and prices are very affordable so your family budget won't suffer. The site also offers very useful parenting articles, including an age-by-age development guide.

TARGET

www.target.com.au/baby

Setting up a nursery is always fun, and with a little research and planning it can be a breeze too. In fact, if you want to do it all at one place, your best option would be to go online to Target to find out exactly what you need to ensure baby is well provided for upon arrival. The site includes a useful downloadable baby checklist to make the job even easier.